MEDICINAL

The duel in the dark was a favorite with duellists. Two men were locked in a dark room and crawled stealthily from corner to corner, until some false step made one of them the target for bullet or blade.

Life is a duel in the dark with disease. One false step, one mistake, and the attack comes swift and sudden. The mistake which commonly opens the way for an attack by disease is neglect of the symptoms of stomach trouble. When eating is followed by undue fullness, belchings, sour or bitter risings, etc., disease is attacking the stomach.

The best way to frustrate such an attack is to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and makes the body strong and healthy.

"I was suffering very much with my head and stomach," writes Mrs. W. C. Gill, of Weldon, Shelby Co., Ala., "head was so dizzy when I would rise up in bed would fall right back. Could eat but very little, in fact scarcely anything, there seemed to be a heavy weight in my stomach so I could not rest. I had to belch very often and would vomit up nearly everything I ate. I was in a bad condition. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and five of his 'Favorite Prescription' and am now well and hearty. I feel like a new woman and give Dr. Pierce's medicines credit for it all. I had taken medicine from physicians without any benefit as I could see."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

TILLMAN-GONZALES SHOOTING.
Editor N. G. Gonzales, of the Columbia, S. C. State, who was shot and seriously wounded by Lieut.-Gov. James Tillman Thursday on the most traveled street in the capital of South Carolina, is struggling between life and death. It is a hard and desperate fight.

Last night he was holding his own, with the worst yet ahead.

The first that has been heard on the subject from Lieutenant-Governor Tillman is in this statement sent from the county jail: "I can only say that when the truth of the unfortunate affair is known my friends, as well as the people of the country, will see how thoroughly I was justified in acting as I did. At the proper time I will be prepared to show this."

Mr. Tillman's defense, it now seems, will be that he thought Mr. Gonzales was armed; that Mr. Gonzales had his hand in his coat pocket and had a pistol there. Mr. Gonzales, however, had no weapon.

In talking of the shooting yesterday Mr. Gonzales gave in substance the version published yesterday.

Being questioned about the report that Mr. Tillman said, "I got your message," Mr. Gonzales said positively that he had sent to the Lieutenant-Governor no message; that his meeting with Mr. Tillman was unexpected and that he was not armed. The bullet fired by Mr. Tillman pierced vital spots of Mr. Gonzales' abdomen and pursued a course somewhat similar to that in the case of President McKinley. There are fears that peritonitis will set in, in which case death would be speedy.

The wounded man is making a plucky fight for his life. As he has a strong constitution, excellent habits and a resolute will, it is thought that there is a chance he may pull through, notwithstanding his critical condition. Yesterday morning, when the city schools assembled and prayers were said, they included an appeal for his recovery.

At the South Carolina College prayers were offered for his recovery, and even in the Senate chamber, where Lieutenant-Governor Tillman had presided shortly before the shooting, the chaplain prayed that the Almighty would save the life of Mr. Gonzales.

While there is a great deal of feeling over the affair, it can be stated with positiveness that there is absolutely no thought of violence against Lieutenant-Governor Tillman on the part of Mr. Gonzales' friends. It is the wish of Mr. Gonzales and his closest friends that the case should be left for the courts to settle.

HIS WEDDING PUT OFF.
The marriage of Reginald Claypool Vanderbilt and Kathleen Nelson, which was to have taken place soon, will be postponed until next summer.

Both are very young, both rich, especially the bridegroom, who has $10,000,000 of his own, yet fate and the fact that he is a multi-millionaire have together brought bitter disappointment to him over a youthful escapade which would be overlooked in an ordinary young man. That would seem to be one of the penalties of being very rich.

"Here is a bright young chap," said a friend of the family, "who virtually starts out handicapped in life because he has had no one to give him good advice. He was not of age when he fell into his great inheritance. Fawned upon at preparatory school and college by hypocritical friends, he didn't know the dignity of reserve. He threw his money right and left, neglected his studies at Yale and failed to pass his examination."

"For years, like all the Vanderbilt boys, he was kept down by his father, who was not extravagant. He had enough, but no great lot of money to spend. When his fortune came he started throwing it away. Automobiles, yachts and other things he craved he got and he didn't care."

"He was called to a halt by his brothers, but paid no attention to them. Then he met a charming girl, and she and her mother gave him the 'jolt.' If I may use the word, which brought him to his senses. He's a good boy, but he's only a boy. He'll be wise soon. I'm sorry for his troubles. I think, however, it is a shame for Mr. Jerome to bring all this publicity on a youngster when there is older, bigger game for him to shoot at."

The illness of Mrs. Arthur T. Kemp, the sister of the bride-elect, and the notoriety following Mr. Jerome's crusade against Richard Canfield, the gambler, in which the bridegroom was named as a possible witness, with all the disagreeable publicity attendant thereon, were urged as reasons why the two families had determined on changing the date of the ceremony.

Mrs. Kemp's health has greatly improved, and it is expected that she can soon leave Roosevelt Hospital.

The Vanderbilt family believe that a Newport wedding will not be the cause of bringing up so much unpleasant talk, as by that time the Canfield incident will be comparatively old and practically forgotten.

Uncle Sam says it's all right

Uncle Sam, in the person of ten of his government officials, is always in charge of every department of our distillery. During the entire process of distillation, after the whiskey is stored in barrels in our warehouses, during the seven years it remains there, from the very grain we buy to the whiskey you get, Uncle Sam is constantly on the watch. We dare not take a gallon of our own whiskey from our own warehouse unless he says it's all right. And when he does say so, that whiskey goes direct to you, with all its original strength, richness and flavor, carrying a UNITED STATES REGISTERED DISTILLERS' GUARANTEE OF PURITY and AGE, and saving the dealer's enormous profits. That's why HAYNER WHISKEY is the best for medicinal purposes. That's why it is preferred for other uses. That's why we have over a quarter of a million satisfied customers. That's why YOU should try it. Your money back if you're not satisfied.
